INVITATION

Lithuanian cadet & mini cadet open

in Memory of BRONE BALAI SIENE

1921 – 1983

Always glad and energetic woman, as well optimist, determined, spirited, demanding for itself and for others, specialist of table tennis - was Brone Balaisiene. Selftaught player – she was studying all the time, boldly experimented while playing herself and teaching others to play. Brone Balaisiene not only followed the fashion of the game, she dictated to them.

World Champion, a champion of the USSR - daughter Laima Balaisyte, European junior girls Champion - Nijole Ramanauskaite-Kurdzikauskiene, EYC boys champion, multi-country championships medalist – Mironas Krejeris, EYC medalist – Z.Rusakevicius, Soviet youth and junior champions - R.Miknevicius and D.Bartkeviciute, several dozens of Lithuanian champions - such is the hardworking coach work result.

Brone Balaisiene name - a lighthouse, and her life - an example to all who take the racket and ball. Her merits to table tennis, active social work in developing this game rated government awards, and in 1975 she was given Lithuanian SSR as deserved physical education and sports worker's name.

Table tennis competition „In Memory of Brone Balaisiene“ first time was held in 1987. Competition was open just for pupil of Vilnius and took place in two stages: 1st stage – qualification groups and matches till the Final. 2nd stage – Finals of all age groups were played on special Saturday in special big hall with one table in the middle and the full tribunes of brothers, sisters, parents, other relatives, friends of the finalists and participants of the first stage. That was great event! And the aim for all players of Vilnius was to reach the final...

Starting on 1996, the tournament grew up till the Lithuanian level. Later, in 2000, table tennis tournament „In Memory of Brone Balaisiene“ were conjuncted with the international training camp „Šalčia“ and became international tournament with participants of Belarus, Estonia, Latvia, Poland and Russia.

From 2011 tournament became really succesfull – there participates around 13 countries every year.
